

Poisonous animals 4.5 Jelly fish

Scientific name : Scyphozoa

Identification :

1. These fish are bioluminescent which means that they produce their light.
2. Their bodies may look complex due to the way they look but they are quite simple.
3. Jellyfish have a smooth body with tentacles that contain tiny cells that can be used when they use their stinging capabilities.
4. They have no bones, brains, heart, or eyes. Their mouths are found in the center of their bodies.
5. They are usually about 0.5 to 16 inches and can grow up to 7 feet and usually weigh around 440 pounds.

Nature of venom : Hemolysins, DNAase, and histamine releasers have been identified in some venoms.