

B12 – SQUAMOUS CELL CARCINOMA

SQUAMOUS CELL CARCINOMA

A male patient of 50 years 1 old with H/o of growth on the penis since 2 years.

GROSS APPEARANCE:- Specimen of penis with testis. There is cauliflower like growth measuring about 2" in diameter, pinkish brown in colour, at glans penis involving completely. Cut surface shows infiltration of growth to deeper tissues . Testis is free from growth.

MICROSCOPY:- Consistent with squamous cell carcinoma.

DIAGNOSIS:- Squamous cell carcinoma.