

C14 – FAT EMBOLISM-LUNG

HISTORY:- A male, aged 24 years, met with scooter accident, causing fracture of right tibia. There is no fracture of skull or intracranial haemorrhage. Patient died in the hospital. Autopsy conducted.

MACROSCOPY:- Specimen of lung. The outer surface of lung is grayish white in color and few petechial haemorrhages. Cut surface is grayish white in colour and shows petechial haemorrhage.

MICROSCOPY:- Multiple sections studied show fat emboli in capillaries. (Frozen section).

IMPRESSION:- Fat emboli, lung.