

1. R.E: 7.7 Mummified foetus

- Dried 8cm length foetus- 10-12 weeks old
- Skeletonized with dried skin present over the foetal body

Medicolegal importance

- Intrauterine death due to devoid of blood supply and scanty amniotic fluid.
- Mummification of body occur in dry and hot environment.
- Mummified bodies loss 70% of water and break into fragments.

