

1. R.S: 6.2 Smoker's lung

- A specimen of left lung with two lobes
- Presence of blackish carbon particles all over the lung surface

General description

- Cigarette smoke contains more than 7,000 chemicals
- Nicotine, ammonia, carbon monoxide & acetaldehyde which are carcinogens
- Scarring or inflammation and damaging cells and blood vessels

